

Canberra's Native Backyard Birds *

Golden Whistler

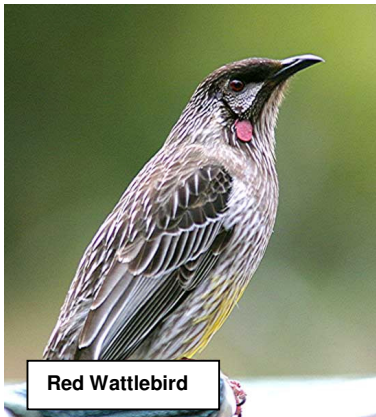

Noisy Friarbird

Rufous Whistler

King Parrot

Red Wattlebird

Superb Parrot

Red-rumped Parrot

Red-browed Firetail

Grey Butcherbird

White-winged Chough on mud nest

Pied Currawong

White-eared Honeyeater

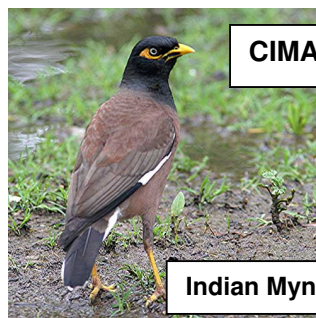

Striated Thornbill

* Common garden birds not shown include: Magpies, Australian Ravens (often mistakenly called "Crows"), Sulphur-crested and Gang-gang Cockatoos, Galahs and Kookaburras.

Non-native birds around Canberra: most of these introduced birds are regarded as pest species

Blackbird

CIMAG Target Bird

Indian Myna / Common Myna

Common Starling

© D.P.H. Watson/CLO

Feral Pigeon / Rock Dove

European Goldfinch

Spotted Turtle-dove

House Sparrow

Acknowledgement of photographers: COG Photo Galley: Geoffrey Dabb, David Cook, Stuart Harris, Lindsay Hansch, Graham Stephinson, Julian Robinson, Rhonda Abbott, Tobias Hiyashi, Noel Luff, Harvey Perkins, Peter Fullagher, James Rolevink, DPH Watson/CLO. For COG photo galley: see www.canberrabirds.org.au/

Produced by the
Canberra Indian Myna
Action Group Inc

